

DSA Open Call – 3 Solo Exhibitions

Dayton Society of Artists is pleased to announce the first Open Call. Artists are invited to submit their work for consideration in our July- August 2018 exhibition slot. Three artists will be selected, each artist will be assigned one of the DSA three gallery rooms for their own solo exhibition.

About Us

The Dayton Society of Artists was founded in 1938 to benefit artists by providing workshops and programs, a meeting place for discussion, and opportunities to exhibit. A non-profit organization, it seeks to benefit the community at large by sharing resources to create an interest in the visual arts and to expand knowledge in this area.

Eligibility & Terms

- Artists working in all medium are welcome to apply.
- All artwork submitted must be ready to hang or install. Works on paper must be framed and wired. The DSA has plaster and lath walls and uses a hook and rod hanging system for framed works. Works that are 12 lbs or less may be hung with 3M Velcro Strips.
- Artists working in new media, film, or video - you may be required to use your own equipment for exhibitions.
- Artists are responsible for shipping and delivery of work both ways.
